

TWO DEATHS

At State Hospital Last Day Of The Year.

Mrs. Ada Hester, a patient from Trigg county, died at the Western State Hospital, Dec. 31, of pellagra, aged 37. She had been in the institution about four months. She contracted the disease in Trigg county. The body was taken to that county for burial.

Mrs. Angeline Hughes, a patient from Logan county, died Dec. 31, of exhaustion from chronic mania, aged 65 years. She had been in the hospital two months. The body was taken to Auburn for burial.

Reappointed Veterinarian

Dr. R. L. Bradley has been reappointed by the State Veterinarian Robert Graham as commissioned Veterinarian for Christian county for 1914. Dr. Bradley held the same place last year. It is his duty to investigate and handle all cases of contagious and infectious diseases of livestock in the county.

Weaving the Web of Life.

Life is the daily web of character unconsciously weave. Our thoughts, imaginations, purpose, motives, love, will, are the underthreads; our words, tone of voice, looks, acts, habits, are the upper threads; and the passing moment is the shuttle, swiftly, ceaselessly, relentlessly, weaving those threads into a web; and that web is life.—S. D. Gordon.

How to Split an Adverb.

On a recent rainy evening I caught the savor of the split adverb. It was in a tram-car, and the young lady from the sweet factory was anxious about her hat. She asked her companion—of course she could not see her own hat: "Is it spoilt absolutely well-out-ly?"—London Chronicle.

Our Popular Songs.

If a young lady informed you in ordinary conversation that she was a galler Zulu baby, wouldn't think much of her culture. But this language is all right set to ragtime music.

REX BEATS OWN RECORD

Greatest of All Its Pictures Now On To-day.

It is fortunate that Manager Shrode succeeded in getting "The Last Days of Pompeii," so that everybody could have a chance to see the great masterpiece in moving pictures. Yesterday morning before the doors were opened it was evident that The Rex was in for a big run for two days.

Those who attended the first morning and evening unhesitatingly declared that everybody who fails to go today will miss an opportunity of seeing the acme of moving pictures.

It is impossible to describe the scenery, which contributes so much to the success of the presentation. In staging it the outlay of money was not considered—results were wanted and they were to be secured, regardless of everything.

When it is remembered that 8,000 people were used in staging Bulwer's master production—the imagination of a genius being acted out—George Klein, who produced "Quo Vadis," deserves the gratitude of the world. The talent employed for the leading parts was the best that walks the stage today. In this money did not enter into contracts. Here actors were wanted and they were secured. But the outlay incurred in the production of this magnificent production absolutely staggers belief, $250,000.

The Board of Education of New York City endorses it and recommends that all children should see it as an educational factor.

At Louisville the people paid 25, 35 and 50 cents to see it, but Mr. Shrode, with his proverbial generosity, has put the prices at only 10 and 20 cents.

It would be a work of supererogation to attempt to tell of the magnificence of the scenic effects, the superb acting by the best actors of the American stage, the grandeur of the eruption of Mount Vesuvius etc., etc. It must be seen to be appreciated and nobody should fail to go during this morning, this afternoon and tonight, the last chances you will ever have.

Purely Personal.

Complementary to Miss Blanch Harness of Hopkinsville Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Walton of Blackford avenue entertained at dinner Saturday evening.—Evansville Courier.

Miss Edwin Elliott has gone to Hamby Station to teach a school near the Hopkins County line.

Hershel A. Long returned from Lexington suffering with an attack of grip.

Miss Ruth Brandenburg, of Evansville, Ind., visited Mrs. E. P. Fears during the holidays.

Why the Third Place?

Mrs. Duff (to new maid)—"But, Mary, there are only two in the family, Mr. Duff and myself; why have you set places for three?" The New Maid—"Sure, ma'am, it was the cook that told me you had a planer player in the house."—Harger's Weekly.

They So Seldom Do.

What a woman likes about reading over old love letters is how queer it would seem now if any of it had come true.—New York Press.

Child Burned.

The little son of Mr. Ernest Young, of near Pee Dee, was badly burned the first of the week. Mr. Young's three children were with him in a barn, and while he was working in his tobacco the little boy, only three years of age, got too near the fire and in a few minutes he would have been wrapped in a sheet of flame. Mr. Young was outside the barn and when he got to where the child was the other children had succeeded in putting the fire out. Their hands were badly burned.

DR. BEAZLEY

Specialist
(Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat)

"New Year" Tandy.

At a late hour Wednesday night, the stork visited Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Tandy and added a fine boy to the population of Hopkinsville, just in time to be welcomed with the New Year. He arrived the last hour of the last day of the last month in 1913.

Miss Norma Riley, daughter of Capt. J. W. Riley, of Newstead, left here Thursday night for Moss Point, Miss., where she will enter school.

FORBES Manufacturing Company

Incorporated

Louisville's Bad Showing.

Kentucky's health rate decreased two-tenths of 1 per cent in 1912, and Louisville's rate increased 14 per cent, according to figures just issued by the Census Bureau.

Hard to Get Married Now.

Because of the new eugenic marriage law, which went into effect in Wisconsin Thursday, there was an unprecedented rush for marriage licenses throughout the State in December.

Stanley Milward Killed.

Stanley Milward, a leading Republican in Lexington, fell down an elevator shaft at his store Wednesday morning and was killed. He was at one time a member of the State Board of Control.

Why Pay
A Big PRICE

For a Manure Spreader, when you can get one just as good, if not better, for LESS MONEY.

Help the good work along. Buy a CLOVERLEAF SPREADER and you will be more than pleased.

PLANTERS HARDWARE COMPANY

SEE OUR LINE OF JEWELRY

AND

NOVELTY

Goods Before Buying Your Xmas Presents.

M. D. KELLY

The Old Reliable Jeweler

Don't Fail To See
Little Miss Susan
By Fred Raymond, Author of The Missouri Girl

At

Holland's
Opera House
Thursday, Jan. 8

Prices: Lower Floor 35c
& 50c. Gallery 25 and 35c

Rubbers and Rain Coats

Keep your feet and your body warm and dry with a good RAIN COAT and a pair of RUBBERS. We have the RAIN COATS for Men, Boys, Women and Children and we have the RUBBERS to fit any shaped shoe you wear, and you have our guarantee that the price is right.

Frankels' Busy Store

Incorporated